

acres to be excised from the suit property, valued at Kshs. 400,000,000.00 the same to be shared equally between AHMEDNASIR ABDULLAHI and I.

26. THAT AHMEDNASIR ABDULLAHI also indicated that he enjoyed patronage with the Attorney General and would ensure to 100% delivery in the case by contacting the Attorney General's office for assistance.

27. THAT I have since established that AHMEDNASIR ABDULLAHI indeed wrote to the Attorney General on 27th February, 2012 in terms of his representation to ensure 100% delivery. Annexed herewith and marked as "BY7" is a true copy of the letter in evidence of the above.

28. THAT AHMEDNASIR ABDULLAHI did not get to act in any of the matters aforesaid on his own but through my introduction and agency. He is for all practical purposes my Agent.

29. THAT there are many other instances of disgraceful or dishonourable conduct on the part of AHMEDNASIR ABDULLAHI arising out of the matters deposed to hereinabove, including but not limited to contravention of:-

- a. Chapter Six of the Constitution of Kenya, 2010 in so far as he is a member of the Judicial Service Commission;
- b. Section 39 of the Advocates Act in so far as he has acted as my agent; and,
- c. Section 46 of the Advocates Act in so far as it relates to the various agreements for remuneration by way of purchase of interests in the subject matters of the cases he is acting in.

30. THAT there are many other instances of disgraceful or dishonourable conduct on the part of AHMEDNASIR ABDULLAHI, namely:-

- a. AHMEDNASIR ABDULLAHI confided to me that whilst the interviews for the Chief Justice were underway, he and a Senior Counsel took the current Chief Justice, Honourable Willy Mutunga to AHMEDNASIR ABDULLAHI's residence in Karen for "couching". AHMEDNASIR ABDULLAHI told me that NSIS officers trailed them up to his residence in Karen but the officers could not go beyond the gate nor could they take photographs of them;

Brown

